

THANK YOU

TO THE FOLLOWING COMPANIES FOR YOUR GENEROUS SUPPORT OF NEWSPAPER IN EDUCATION

Newspapers in Education, or NIE, is a non-profit educational service of The Telegraph that distributes newspaper resources to Middle Georgia classrooms for use as educational tools. We are committed to enriching our youth and the community at large by providing outstanding curriculum and activities to teachers and students at little or no cost.

The success of NIE is due to the generosity of the following businesses and organizations. Because of their donations, we are able to provide thousands of copies of The Telegraph this school year. We salute our sponsors and display our appreciation on this page.
